Preface.

Having completed in 1889 a collection of Marriage Records of Snyder County and published them in a book of 266 pages, I conceived the idea of publishing the inscriptions of the Tombstones of Snyder County. This volume is the result of those plans.

The inscriptions here given have been published from time to time in the Middleburg Post for the past five years. The first section was published January 26, 1899, another August 3, 1899 and others more or less regular ever since.

According to the table of Contents on the preceding page there are a total of 8642 inscriptions recorded in the book. This "Inscription" book is a companion volume to the "Marriage" book.

Unfortunately for posterity, quite a great many graves are unmarked. For such graves no record could be made. In a few instances, however, the reporters gathered data of unmarked graves from friends of the deceased. We simply did the best we were able to do.

This book, like its predecessor from my pen, has been the product of utilizing moments hastily snatched from a busy editorial chair and the active duties of managing a publishing and printing business.

We submit this volume to the public with a sigh of relief after five years since its inception. Should any errors occur, we ask the kindly forbearance of the reader, as under the adverse circumstances with which this book has been produced, we could scarcely expect to avoid all of them.
